

Below is a listing of reliable sources for car information, safety and consumer rights in the marketplace.

American Automobile Association

AAA - America's largest automobile membership association provides a number of valuable services to members nationwide.

AAA Foundation for Traffic Safety

A not-for-profit educational and research organization dedicated to saving lives and reducing injuries by preventing traffic crashes and providing car safety information.

BBB Auto Line

The Better Business Bureau system administers BBB AUTO LINE to help automobile manufacturers and individual customers resolve disputes concerning alleged car manufacturing defects.

Better Business Bureau

Providing consumers with information and resources for fairness in the marketplace.

Car Care Council - Be Car Care Aware

A public education campaign offering car information that prepares consumers to make sensible decisions about their vehicles.

The Center for Auto Safety

Consumer advocacy organization dedicated to auto safety and reliability. Information is available for researching defects and recalls of most car major makes and models.

Federal Trade Commission - Facts for Consumers

Practical tips and terminology to be aware of when buying a new car.

Lemon Law - Free Legal Help in PA, NJ, DE, MD, MA

Lemon Law - 100% Free PA, DE, MD, MA & NJ Lemon Law Help. Call 1-800-LEMON LAW for Kimmel & Silverman, with offices in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Massachusetts and Maryland. Get new car or refund at no cost to you. 30,000 drivers helped and counting!

Lemon Law America

National lemon law resource for consumers with defective automobiles, featuring lemon laws statutes for all fifty states and a directory of lemon law attorneys.

Massachusetts Consumers' Coalition - Car Smart

Sponsored by the Massachusetts Consumers' Coalition, CAR SMART is a convenient consumer resource with helpful tips for finding and buying a car, obtaining satisfactory repairs, and protecting consumer rights in car-related matters.